Wild at Heart

Everyone knows west is best when it comes to wild coastlines and Raglan photographer Trevor Penfold has proved that with his new book, Visions of Nature – New Zealand's Wild in the West, being launched today at the Raglan Old School Arts Centre, Stewart St, from 10.30am. There's also an exhibition, running until December 24, of some of Penfold's stunning photographs. Some of the prints, along with the book (RRP $58) will be for sale, with $5 from each sale donated to Whaingaroa Harbour Care.
